The picnic that that nearly was/wasn't ...

Organising picnics doesn't seem to be one of our strongpoints. March usually guarantees us fine weather and who would have thought a humble(!) virus could wreak havoc with our plans?

But we are a hardy bunch. Right on cue at 1:30pm the rain arrived as about fifteen of our people started to arrive for our 'picnic'. Never mind the rain, we were just so pleased to see each other in person. Fortunately no wind.

After about 45 minutes, well, what now? An invitation by Jenny Collins to 'back to our place' was readily accepted.

Peter Aumann had booked a maxi cab to bring Val to the picnic, but at the last minute was able to change the destination to their home and an invite us to 'have a cuppa and meet Val'. Some eight people took up his offer. Overall a success but maybe "third time lucky"?

Welcome to News Letter #52! Sunday March 22nd 2020 was our last face to face service and incorporated a service of thanksgiving for the life of John Morrison, because we couldn't all attend funerals. "News Letter #1" came out the following week (dated Friday 27th) with a Vimeo link to Bryan Quinn's sermon. We thought we were so advanced! A year later and See that first News Letter on page 4. it was only going to be for few weeks?

In the words of this hymn "The times they are a-changin'" and one I hope you will notice in the new format of the "News Letter" which temporarily replaces our usual News Sheet. We hope and pray that it won't be long before we are meeting together and once more you will be receiving the weekly "News Sheet".

As well as being our Minister, Greg is a technical guru and amongst many other duties is setting up video conferencing facilities so that the Church Council, Elders and Carers can still function effectively.

The Rev John Wright has kindly offered to be our Pastoral Care Coordinator. All matters relating to Pastoral Care should be referred to John.

Over 100 Australian Faith Groups unite on climate change

On Thursday 11th March faith leaders across Australia held a day of protest for more government action on climate change.

It was part of a multi-faith climate justice event called 'Sacred People, Sacred Earth' coinciding with faith events around the world.

In a letter to Margaret Bode (and the Social Justice Group) Tejopala of the 'Australian Religious Response to Climate Change' writes -

Margaret -- What a day! All told there were 135 actions across Australia today! This is by far the biggest multi faith day of climate organising there has ever been in Australia. Today we preached, prayed, chanted, rang bells, sang hymns, lit candles and incense, meditated, stood in silent witness and organised. Absolutely amazing. People from across so many faiths in every state and territory, city and town, all with one clear message: we want serious climate action and we want it now.

Australian Religious Response to Climate Change

Here are some of the photos that have come in throughout the day. I hope you love looking at these as much as I do. And please bear in mind this is just the beginning. There are more than 400 events worldwide in no fewer than 43 countries. The number of major faith organisations backing the statement and the day of action comes to more than 200 worldwide, with a conservative estimate of the number of people that represents being 100 million.

This is just the beginning though. We have shown that we can do it and we'll do it again right before the crucial climate negotiations in Glasgow called COP26 in November.

Thank you so much to all of the people who have phoned, emailed, asked their friends, asked people they'd never met and shown that communities of faith not only care deeply but we can really do something about it.

I'm going to enjoy watching the photos come in from around the rest of the world, and also spending a few days with my family. With much gratitude,

Tejopala

News Letter

No 1 27th March 2020

In the words of Bob Dylan "the times they are a changin'" and one change you will notice is the new format of this "News Letter" which temporarily replaces our weekly News Sheet. We hope and pray that it won't be long before we are meeting together and once more you will be receiving the weekly "News Sheet".

As well as being our Minister, Greg is a technical guru and amongst many other duties is setting up videoing conferencing facilities so that the Church Council, Elders and Carers can still function efficiently.

The Rev Joan Wright has kindly offered to be our Pastoral Care Coordinator. All matters relating to Pastoral Care should be referred to Joan - who will do their best to help you.

For my part I'm helping to keep up our Music Ministry by using our beautiful new Yamaha keyboard. I may not be able to play it at church, but I can play it at home and I am making video clips of favourite hymns which you will be able to view and sing along with on the internet. No need for a hymn book, the words will be on the screen! The only thing lacking is Jocelyn on the piano (->) Stay tuned..

We're streaming on the internet !

Next Sunday was going to be Greg's Sunday off with Bryan Quinn taking the service. Not a problem—Bryan had already prepared the service and Greg has videoed his message which you can now view on the internet.
