

Next Sunday at church ...

Quick Reference? Quite Right!

When you arrive at church (Black Rock) next Sunday you will see a very familiar sight - a QR (Quick Reference) Code for you to "sign in" to church.

As from 28th April under COVID-19 Regulations, using a QR Code will be the only means by which we can record church attendance.

If you have a smartphone the process is very simple (follow the instructions below)

If you don't have a smartphone, don't worry, there will be people at the door to assist you.

You've possibly used these before, but for those who haven't it's quite easy. Open the camera function on your smartphone and point it at all those black dots. A message will appear on your screen

"Webpage - tap here to go to service.vic.gov.au ..... "

Tap on this message and you will be asked to enter your name and a phone number then tap "check in to this location". That's it! The first time you use this there is an option to 'save details' for quicker use next time.

Using this system you will get a message alert if anyone who enters or who has entered the Black Rock church has contracted COVID-19. Simple! Try it!
