

Our Community Gardening Group

Many moons ago, pre COVID, the Community Gardens Committee of CMUC accepted an offer of some 20 planter boxes from FareShare, a charity based in Abbotsford which produces low cost meals for those in need. The boxes had been made by prisoners, but FareShare no longer needed them, and most were in need of maintenance and repair.

At the time, we anticipated a use for them ourselves, and set about repairing and upgrading the boxes, which have been stored in the Mentone UC hall in Eblana Ave. Mentone.

However, as reported previously, most of the various initiatives of our wee committee have unfortunately come to nought, aside from a modest Backyard Sharing project (more on that another time). As a result, we have recently found ourselves post COVID with several good quality planter boxes in need of a good home.

After several enquiries, a dozen have now been dispatched. Six have been enthusiastically accepted by Hampton Park UC (which runs a community garden and offers community meals twice a week); one by the Murrumbeena Community Garden, associated with Murrumbeena UC; and five by the Carnegie Community Laneways Garden and Gallery – recommended by the Murrumbeena Community Garden.

Encouraging to see that some good use is being made of an upgraded resource for community gardening.

From Helen Cole: "The Cheltenham Opportunity Shop is settling into its new home at 10 Park Rd, Cheltenham - between Nepean Hwy and Charman Rd (opposite St Matthews). Due to over supply thy cannot accept any more books or DVD's, also no electrical items for safety reasons. Most other household items and clothing in good condition are still welcome".

Last Sunday Rev Greg Fry played the second part of the "Easter Message 2022" by Moderator Denise Liersch. The video invites us to listen to the story of Good Friday through Luke's eyes. "Luke invites us to listen much more deeply and to let ourselves be touched by the griefs and disappointments that saturate his story of the resurrection of Jesus" Denise says. "Resurrection faith is about discovering that the body of Christ is no longer in the tomb. Christ is alive in our midst as we pray together, sing and laugh, forgive each other and eat and drink together. Hear the good news: we don't say 'Christ was risen', 'Christ is risen, Christ is risen indeed'."
